

Request for Use of NIA Property

All requests for permission to use any NIA properties or facilities must be made through the NIA House Use Chairperson, and are subject to approval by the NIA Executive Board. The House Use Chairperson's contact information is as follows:

Annie Shay, NIA House Use Chairperson
75 Ironwood Road Trumbull, Ct 06611

You must be an NIA member in good standing to request the use of any NIA properties or facilities. Additionally, all persons granted the use of any NIA properties or facilities agree to the following conditions:

- a) That they assume liability for any damage or destruction to NIA properties or facilities resulting from their use of said properties or facilities for their event/activity;
- b) That they assume liability for any personal injury to any person(s) resulting from their use of said properties or facilities for their event/activity;
- c) That they agree to pay the "house use fee" of $50, payable prior to the date of the event, and delivered to the House Use Chairperson;
- d) That they agree to abide by all applicable NIA rules & regulations regarding the use of NIA properties or facilities (posted on the NIA website);
- e) That, should they fail to comply with any of these conditions, they may be denied the use of any NIA properties or facilities, and may be subject to additional recourse, including any necessary legal options, by the NIA and/or their representatives.
